GUS BAND

Based in Northampton and originally known as the Munn and Felton Works Band, GUS Band was formed by Fred Felton in 1933 in Kettering. Since then, the band has gone on to win a string of titles including no less than six national titles, the British Open Championships and World Championship. GUS Band is the current Midland Regional Champion.

HAMMONDS BAND

Founded in 1855 as the Saltaire Band by Sir Titus Salt as one of the amenities for the workers at his recently opened mill, the band had a long association with Hammonds Sauce Works under the baton of the legendary Geoffrey Whitham. Now with Morgan Griffiths as Musical Director, the band performs as Hammonds Band. In recent years the band has contested throughout Europe, recorded numerous CDs and performed at some of the best concert venues in the world.

Sat 4 December 2021

FLOWERS BAND

Based in Gloucester, Flowers Band rose rapidly up the Championship Section ladder in 1986 where it has since established itself in the top 10 of the Brass Band World rankings table, becoming the 2019 French Open Champion. With Paul Holland as Musical Director, the band has recorded several CDs, appeared on BBC1's Songs of Praise and has had continued contest successes.

BLACK DYKE BAND

Formed in Queensbury, West Yorkshire in 1855, Black Dyke Band is the most successful contesting band in the world. With Music Director Nicholas Childs at the helm and renowned musicians in its ranks including Principal Cornet player Richard Marshall, Black Dyke is the current Yorkshire Regional champion – a title it has claimed 23 times. The band remains at the forefront of brass band activity with over 350 recordings to its name including an array of background music for television and film.

GRIMETHORPE COLLIERY BAND

Formed in 1917 as a leisure activity for the workmen of the South Yorkshire colliery, Grimethorpe has taken part in diverse concert performances including the FIFA World Cup, BAFTA Awards, BBC Proms, Eurovision, and London 2012 Olympic Games Opening Ceremony, together with a wealth of national and international television and radio appearances and professional recordings. Its Musical Director, Dr David Thornton, is regarded as one of the foremost euphonium players and teachers of his generation.

FAIREY BAND

Founded in 1937 by a group of employees at the Fairey Aviation Works in Stockport, Fairey Band is in constant demand for concerts, both at home and abroad. In recent years, the band has enjoyed further recognition outside the confines of the Brass Band movement, with its involvement in the 'Acid Brass' project – in which the band has been able to display its flexibility in adapting to a totally different musical concept performing in rock/pop festivals in the UK and overseas. The band appointed Adam Cooke as its Musical Director in 2020.

BRIGHOUSE & RASTRICK BAND

Formed over 130 years ago through public donations given by the townsfolk of the adjacent villages of Brighouse and Rastrick that face each other across the River Calder in West Yorkshire, Brighouse & Rastrick Band is regarded by many as the best and most consistent 'public subscription band' in the world. The band has attracted a formidable reputation for highly entertaining concerts and many notable triumphs to its credit in the highly competitive contesting field. Today, it continues to be supported through public subscriptions and its own fundraising efforts.

ROTHWELL TEMPERANCE BAND

Formed in 1984, Rothwell Temperance Band quickly made a name for itself at major contests and has continued to win major titles over the past 36 years including Yorkshire Area, Grand Shield, Senior Cup, All England Masters, Swiss Open and Pontins. Under the guidance of Musical Director David Roberts, the band is proud to field so many talented musicians in its ranks including sixteen year old award-winning trombone player Joseph Heartfield.
